Dear Molly,

It is always nice to receive mail from anyone interested in genealogy of the Pendarvis family. I have been researching off and on since early 1970s, on all my lines actually, but certainly more on the Pendarvis line.

I have completed my own direct line from Joseph Pendarvis who came to Charleston, South Carolina, in Aug. 1671. His only son was John Pendarvis. John had three sons by his first wife: Joseph, Benjamin and John. Both Benjamin and John died without children. John married a second time to Hannah Keys and they had one son, Josiah. John had already made his will before the birth of this last child, and subsequently died without writing a second will or otherwise providing for him, so that left Joseph as his male heir. I descend from this Joseph. Thus, so far, Joseph Pendarvis was Generation 1; John Pendarvis generation 2; and Joseph Pendarvis was Generation 3.

Joseph Pendarvis Gen. III: he left his property to Childermas Croft and John Hyrne (in trust) for these children: "... James, Brand, William, John, Thomas, Mary and Elizabeth children of a negro woman named Parthena that lived with me the said Joseph Pendarvis and for the survivors of the said children their heirs and assigns for ever." I am not pointing this out because of any feelings on my part about this one way or another, but because in my research, and making contact with other Pendarvises, I found that many find it "convenient" (shall we say) to omit this historical fact, and try to find a way to assume descendancy from young Josiah. I cannot and will not distort facts as I found them. Although Joseph did not identify these children as his own, (as far as I found) the children are identified in later records as children of Joseph Pendarvis.

Gen. IV. Thomas Pendarvis: I assume he is the youngest son since he is always named last among the sons in records. He married Hannah Hasfort, daughter of the Hannah Hasfort who m. 2nd John Pendarvis above, grandfather of Thomas. (This elder Hannah had m. 3rd Joseph Hasfort.) Thomas Pendarvis and Hannah had three children: Sarah, Thomas and Joseph. (Named in the Giessandanner records of St. Matthew's Church parish records and the will of Thomas Pendarvis as well as other records). After Hannah Pendarvis died ca. very early 1770s, Thomas married 2nd Elizabeth _____, and they had Frederick and Josiah Pendarvis. So this gives us names of five children of Thomas Pendarvis, four of whom are sons which would carry on the line of Pendarvis. They are named in his will (1783).

In the St. Matthews church records mentioned above, the home of Thomas Pendarvis, Gen. IV, is said to have been near The Four Holes. He later received a 750 acre land grant in what is now Dorchester County, S.C., on Indian Field Swamp which is not far from The Four Holes. He left this 750 acre tract of land to three of his sons who in a later series of deeds divided it up among themselves. Also, a Thomas Pendarvis had received another land grant in the same general area which I believe to have been the son of Thomas Gen. IV. So to this point, Thomas Pendarvis, Sr. having died 1783, we now have Thomas, Joseph, Frederick and Josiah Pendarvis, Gen V, (brothers) all of whom lived in the Dorchester County area, St. George Parish. (James Pendarvis had established his home in St. Paul's Parish; Brand and his descendants had established their home in Orangeburg County; if John had married I do not know who or where his home was, but do know that he did not leave the area for he witnessed legal documents for his brother and brother-in-law, etc.; Wm. lived with a woman and sired two children, nothing concrete further).

Gen. V, Joseph Pendarvis: Joseph Pendarvis lived his lifetime on his half of the 750 acre tract of land his father Thomas willed to him. He died there about 1803/04. I have established by records that he had at least two sons: Thomas and Daniel Pendarvis. They too, lived in this same area as the above four. So now we have a fairly detailed record of six males who lived on in the St. George area of Dorchester County (Colleton County at that time, in the early 1800s.)

My line: Joseph 1; John 2; Joseph 3; Thomas 4; Joseph 5; Daniel 6; Joshua Allen 7; Joshua Allen Jr. 8; William Allen 9; and me 10, 72 years old.

Perhaps I have given you more here than you really wanted, but I have given this thumbnail sketch of my line to say that James Pendarvis of Newnansville, Fla could have descended from the line of any of those in bold letters, for he also lived in the same general area of all of these. However, I cannot say that he definitely does, or does not, belong to this line. I'm sure he was not in my direct line, but could have been in any of the side lines. There was also another name involved in the above mentioned land division and swaps: Joshua Pendarvis. I had believed that he might be a third son of my Joseph, Gen. V, but could never prove one way or another. He might have been son of Josiah, Gen. V. Josiah's children, taken from an index to a court record, was: John, Joshua, Jacob, Catherine and Betsy (actually Elizabeth perhaps?).

I have extra copies of 1820 and 1830 censuses of this area that I will tuck in for you to see perhaps the possibilities from there.

From the page you sent I gather you have the censuses (1840, 1860) of Florida sent to me from Jo Allie Downing of Florida. The same family was in the 1850 Census of South Carolina. I will copy that info at a later time, and some things from the David Gavin Diary. He says the James you have circled did go to Newnansville, Fla. However, it is near midnight tonight, so too late to hunt up all the info. I have and send this time.

Thanks for contacting me. I hope I will have been some help to you. Am I related to that James? I don't know, but the info above suggests I could be/might be from a side line. My phone no: (541) 747-5785. I was raised in Northern Arkansas but since 1957 have lived in Eugene, Oregon, or actually out in the country, but Eugene is my mailing address. Please write again and tell me about yourself, and as much as you know of your background. Perhaps that would help me to help you more. Do you have a computer? I have read some queries from the internet about that James Joseph Pendarvis, but don't remember at this time who or what about him.

Sincerely,

Bernice

CHAPTER ONE THE PENDARVIS FAMILY

From the Sanson Institute of Heraldry Coat of Arms, Pendarvis is from Great Britain. The name probably had initial formation between the 11th and 16th century.

MOLLY'S GRANDFATHER: James Joseph Pendarvis born 12/9/1865 (census 52 in 1920 1868?*) Noonville Florida or Europe, died 1/9/1939 in Escatawpa, MS (see telegram dated 1/9/40, so date should be 1940, he died the same year as Clarice Thigpen see Album 14) BURIED ROBINSON CEMETERY, other family, FERRILL CEMETERY BEHIND ROBINSON CEMETERY.

(Grandfather worked at a sawmill probably the Rogers Sawmill, Moss Point, MS and farmed the land given to him by Mollie's parents.)

GRANDFATHER MARRIED

MOLLY'S GRANDMOTHER: Mary Elizabeth (Mollie) Jones (see chapter two)

MOLLY'S GREAT GRANDFATHER: James Joseph Pendarvis. (Stark or Noonville, FL or England these are the only places grandfather indicated his father was from). THE FAMILY MAY BE FROM PENZANZE, CORNWALL, ENGLAND. (see Shafer, Shirley Phelps went there and saw men who looked like our uncle Guy.) Do not have GREAT GRANDMOTHERS NAME.

This history includes names Helm, Jacobs, Shafer, Broadus, Carlton, Thigpen, Schultz, Windsor, Rankin, Clayton, Mayo, Hagyard, Thompson, Revelle, etc. Read on for the many other names that touched this wonderful family. THE MOST IMPORANT NAME BEING JOHN JOSEPH REVELLE, FOR WHOM THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED.

"Peyton Place" means love. This was a sitcom on television for five years and it was full of what happens to a family. Good or bad this is our family. Most of the bad was not really bad, just the human being trying to survive.

"Gone with the Wind" depicted the old South. The Irish in this family held it together. There are many traditions in our history that held the family together and the greatest tradition was love.

In 1994, Emma (sister) Lopez, (see Jones) gave Molly a picture with the notation, "To Uncle Joe your little nephew, Roy L. Pendarvis age 1 year, 3 months, this is probably the son of George, grandfathers brother. See Family Gathering Jerry P. Lake Placid Fl.

Shirley Phelps (see Shafer) went to Penzanze, Cornwall, England and she saw men who looked especially like Guy Pendarvis, who was a big smiling sailor for over 20 years.

Grandfather was a great Christian and a leader in the church. His dismissal at the end of a service was: (given to me by Connie Pendarvis Shafer)

"AND NOW, DEAR LORD, DISMISS US WITH THY BLESSING. GO WITH US TO OUR SEVERAL PLACES OF ABODE. GUIDE, GUARD, AND DIRECT US THROUGH ALL THE SHIFTING SCENES OF LIFE AND WHEN WE CAN DO NO MORE FOR THE FURTHERANCE OF THY BLESSED KINGDOM, SAVE US TO HEAVEN FOR JESUS SAKE. AMEN"

Grandfather devoted his service to the Lord and he especially loved his family. Purity of Spirit is not enough, we must give our children purity of mind. Today, we need a language of love containing no harsh words. This was a concept of my Grandfather. This reflected in his love for all and I do remember that love. I wish I could have been more loving in my life.

'ANOTHER DAY ANOTHER DOLLAR' - famous saying and an easy way to start over. This was the story of the Pendarvis family. Never give up, life is beautiful.

Grandfather married Mary Elizabeth Jones, daughter of John W. Jones from Wade MS. She was better known as 'Mollie'. During any disagreement Grandfather would take a walk and let 'Mollie' cool off, he never spoke an unkind word to her.

He worked in a sawmill and Rogers Sawmill in Moss Point was probably the name. There was a big farm with pecan trees and grape vines covering about an acre of land.

JOSIAH PENDARVIS, SENR. (L.S.)

Richard Pendarvis, commonly called "Tory Dick," was a South Carolina Loyalist, and

"He left a name at which the world grew pale,
To point a moral or adorn a tale."

He lived on May River, in St. Helena Parish, Granville (now Beaufort) County, South Carolina, and was a notorious participant in many vindictive and bloody encounters between the Tory and Revolutionary elements of his neighborhood.

Many messages of defiance passed between him and Captain James Doharty, an energetic leader of the Revolutionists, resulting in a notice from Pendarvis that he and his friends would call on Doharty on a certain night.

Upon learning this, Doharty and his party determined to ambush Pendarvis and his men on their way, and they were in the act of leaving his house to do so. Doharty and his party followed him to his yard and ambushed him. With the force to have ambushed Pendarvis.

his house to do so, when Pendarvis hailed his arrival: "Are you Captain Doharty?" Doharty, turning to his companions, warned them as follows: "Fly, we are too late." Then he bravely remained in his front yard and replied, "Yes." Upon this, he was fired upon by the Pendarvis party and killed.

With the notice he had, why Doharty had not collected sufficient force to have openly repelled the attack is strange, and his effort to ambush Pendarvis justified the deed of the latter.

This occurred in March, 1779. Later on, when the cause of the Revolutionists had become assured, many of the aggressive Tory element began to seek refuge in flight, and "Tory Dick" who had concluded to do the same, was getting ready to leave; but the friends and kinsmen of Doharty did not mean to let him get away; and surely in April, 1781, they succeeded in killing him.

The account of this rencontre given in the Georgia Gazette, April 19, 1781, reads as follows:

"Last Friday, April 13th. Captain Richard Pendarvis was shot dead within twenty yards of his house on May River, where one William Patterson was also barbarously murdered. The perpetrators of the murder consisted of a Rebel officer and five men; the names of four of the men were Leacraft (prisoner on parole), Blackwood, Bettison, and Nathan Gamble, who had received and was under protection.

"The villains afterward went to the house and insulted Mrs. Pendarvis with opprobrious language, and on leaving took with them three horses and Captain Pendarvis's gun."

Colonel John Screven, great-grandson of Elizabeth Pendarvis, in writing of Richard Pendarvis (who was elder half-brother of said Elizabeth), remarked:

"I think, however, it likely that gross injustice has been done his memory. If he was a Tory and if he did shoot down a man (the uncle of Leacraft) who had repeatedly threatened his life, he died like a brave man."

The Old Settlers

tive to South Carolina, they had come from Roanoke River in North Carolina in 1716 as employees of the colonial government.

The Rev. Francis Varnod, a Frenchman by birth but serving as the Anglican minister to the parish of St. George Dorchester, reported on the inhabitants of his parish in 1726. He indicates a single family of 6 free Blacks with 9 slaves of their own, a free Black man living alone, and 8 free Indians: Nero an Indian, Sam Pickens, Indian (1 man, 1 woman, 4 children), and Sarah.

In 1743, there were 65 Kusso men, women, and children residing in St. Paul's Parish.

Indians began moving into St. Andrew's Parish in 1750 because of invading Indians on settlement Indians. In 1752, the Rev. Charles Martyn reported 100 Indians in that parish. These could have included some Kusso.

The Kusso Indians had a reservation near Caw Caw Swamp which was called "Spoon" (later "Spoons") referenced on a plat for Jonathan Fitch in 1699. This marks the first time that we have a record of the Kusso living in St. Paul's Parish, their home from at least 1699 to sometime after 1750. This area is just north of Parkers Ferry.

Catawba Indians were coming to Parkers Ferry as late as 1821 where they were led by at least one Kusso who knew where the material that was used for Indian pottery was located.

It is necessary to look at Charleston, Colleton, and Dorchester Counties for present-day locations.

Spoons and The Pendarvis Family

Joseph Pendarvis arrived on the First Fleet with his wife, Elizabeth and her daughter Precilla [Priscilla], and his son, John, and daughters, Mary [md. Giles Titmarsh] and Ann [md. William Carlile]. [First Settlers . . . , Baldwin] He came as a "Servant" to Thomas Hurt [Hart?] who arrived August, 1671, on The Blessing. Joseph Pendarvis died 1694/5.

Elizabeth's daughter, Priscilla, married an Allen and then a Rose. The son, John, married (1) Mary West and (2) in 1721 Hannah Kays/Keys, a widow. Hannah married in 1725 Joseph Hasfort whose will was probated 1748. Some of the early Pendarvis and Hasfort families were Quakers or connected with Quakers.

John Pendarvis died in 1723 and had by his will in 1719 left to his son Joseph Pendarvis [a son of Mary], the land on Green's and savanna.

The Old Settlers

Joseph Pendarvis (son of John d. 1723) was born ca. 1700 and died in 1735. In his will, he names his "children of a Negro woman named Parthena deceased that lived with me" as: James, Bran, William, John, Thomas, Mary, and Elizabeth Pendarvis (all under 2 years) and leaves amongst other items the acreage in Colleton Count near Green's savanna.

James Pendarvis, the son above, married 1741 Catherine Rumpf. He made his will in 1796 and died 1797/98 leaving children: Ann who married Samuel Perry, Elizabeth Mary who married Thomas Smith, Jr., and William (who pre-deceased his father in 1786). The Spoon savanna tract was left to the children of Ann Perry. This area is near Jacksonboro, S.C.

James Pendarvis (of will of 1796) lived in St. Paul's Parish, and he and his son, William, were accepted as White. James Pendarvis owned 123 slaves; William Pendarvis' Estate owned 44 slaves in 1790.

The other children and grandchildren of Joseph Pendarvis who died in 1735 included:

2. Brand Pendarvis married Ursella/Ursula/Sertina/Arketta (all variants of same name?) Jennings. He died ca. 1788. [Lexington Co., S.C., Equity Record] At the time of his will, his wife was Mary Fry(e). [Marriage Settlement 1780] She married then in 1789 Charles Jones; then married in 1809 George Bouknight born 1742, Germany. George Bouknight had married (1) Magdalene Larey and (2) Unknown. Mary Fry(e) Pendarvis Jones Bouknight died in 1831.
 - (a) John alias Joseph Pendarvis born ca. 1748 married Anne Salley; she married then James Daniel
 - (b) Benjamin Pendarvis bapt. 1752 married Sarah Sally
3. William Pendarvis (who cohabited with Catherine Pfund Puckeridge wife of Thomas Puckeridge):
 - (a) Elizabeth Puckeridge born 1749
 - (b) Anne Pendarvis born 1756
 - (c) John Pendarvis born 1759
4. John Pendarvis.
5. Thomas Pendarvis (lived near Four Holes) (his will 1781) married Hannah, then married Elizabeth. Children by Hannah:

Joseph Pendarvis, William Pendarvis, and John Pendarvis are in 1790 census of Orangeburg County, owned slaves, and are enumerated as "Other Free Persons." In 1790, Eliza, Joseph, and Thomas Pendarvis are in Dorchester Co., St. George's Parish; Josiah Pendarvis is in St. Bartholomew's Parish.

Records on some of these families are in Salley's History of Orangeburg County in the Giessendanner records.

The Old Settlers

Josiah Pendarvis' brother-in-law was Richard Bohun Baker (1736-1783/85). His son, Richard Bohun Baker, claimed the estate of Tory Richard Pendarvis as a surviving heir of the whole blood through his aunt Elizabeth Baker Pendarvis.

The Coosas

By an agreement between the Lords Proprietors and the Scots, a Scottish colony independent of the English settlement at Charleston was planned for Port Royal Island near present-day Beaufort. The Proprietors advised Governor Joseph Morton and Maurice Mathew in 1682 to purchase the land from the Indians.

We are still not clear as to the situation at Port Royal (who were the Englishmen which Hilton mentioned in 1663?) when and after Robert Sanford explored that area in 1665/6 and left Henry Woodward or what arrangements, if any, Henry Woodward had made with the Indians. Who was the Indian Niquesalla who sold the English the territory of Santa Elena by "turf and twig"—a perfectly legal method of conveyance before a written document was required in 1677? Were there other similar conveyances of which we have no record?

In 1684, "the Casique of Kussah" deeded a tract to the Proprietors for 10 pounds and other valuable consideration. The Kussa Cacique was also involved in a joint cession dated the same date 13 Feb 1683/4. In 1686, Maurice Mathews received 1000 acres for having purchased this land from the Indians.

The Proprietors received a letter in 1686 from South Carolina stating that the Governor had sent 90 men to Stuart Town, the Scottish settlement, to reinforce the men already fighting off a Spanish invasion of that place. John Boone, their commander, was recalled "as a person more useful in gathering our neighbors the Northern Indians to our assistance."

We have records of the Coosa (Coosabo\Cusabo) Indians 156 1712. Palawana Island was reserved for them in 1712. It is stated 1712 that the Cusabo Indians of Granville Co. are the native and ancient inhabitants of the sea coasts. An island called "Palawane" near St. Helena's Island, where most of the Indians are now, was inadvertently granted by the Lords Proprietors to Matthew Smallwood and by him sold to James Cockram [sic] whose property "it is now." Palawane Island was to be vested in the Cusabo Indians, and the Public Receiver was to pay James Cocram [sic].

The people repented for their sins. MALACHI. Elijah's coming and the 9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the day.
10 Have ye not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do ye deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?
11 If Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Jerusalem, and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the Lord which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.
12 The Lord will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the inheritance of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the Lord of hosts.
13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the Lord with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.
14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.
15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore shall he deal to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.
16 For the Lord, the God of Israel, saith, that he loveth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the Lord of hosts:
therefore shall he deal to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.
17 Ye have wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them. 18 Where is the God of judgment?
CHAP. III.
Christ's forerunner and coming.
BEHOLD, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith
the Lord of hosts.
2 But who may abide the day of his coming?
and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap.
3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.
4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old, and as in former years.
5 And I will come near to you to judgment:
and I will be a swift witness against the sor-cesters, and against the adulterers, and against the hypocrites, and against those that oppress the hireling, in his wages: the widow, and the fatherless, and will turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts.
6 For I am the Lord, I change not: therefore the sons of Jacob are not consumed.
7 From the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them: Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the Lord of hosts. But ye say, Wherein shall we return?

8 A man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.
9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.
10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.
11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sake, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts.
12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightful land, saith the Lord of hosts.
13 If your words have been stout against me, saith the Lord. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?
14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of hosts?
15 And now we call the proud happy: yea, they that work wickedness are set up: yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.
16 Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.
17 And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day: when I make up my jewels, and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.
18 Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.
CHAP. IV.
God's judgment on the wicked.
BEHOLD, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day of wrath, that shall leave them neither root nor branch.
2 But unto you that fear my name, shall the Son of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.
3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord
of hosts.
4 Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel: with the statutes and judgments.
5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord.
6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

Mr. Hemphill,

A friend who is a member of the Orangeburg based genealogical soc. referred your desire to locate Pendarvis graves, etc. Have done research on this family for 23 years and still have many questions.

Which Joseph are you attempting to locate grave for? Give me some point of reference. I have a Joseph Pendarvis (one among many) for the 1759 birth but slightly later death.

00The majority of my research is back to the Indian Field Swamp Plantation. Do you have information on Enoch Pendarvis as to establish who his father was?

Am a retired teacher who spends a great deal of time fighting genealogy and the computer. Would like to exchange info.

Linda

Hi Linda,

If you win the battle with the computer, plueeese tell me how you did it.

I get a lot of information in response to my many queries that give a lot of information on this family down to this Joseph whose birth and marriage to Ann Salley are in A. S. Salley's History of Orangeburgh. So far nothing on Joseph's home or children. I hope you have something on this or can get me on the right path.

I hope we can exchange information, but I should forewarn you I have minimal information on the Pendarvises. I would be glad to send copies of anything I have.

This Joseph and his two brothers, William and John, were the only Pendarvises in old Orangeburg County in 1790. The rest were in Dorchester and Charleston.

Did your Oburg Gen Soc friend send you a copy of my latest query? It follows. Please let me hear from you. Where are you and what did you teach? I am a retired engineer in Orangeburg, of course.

Gene,
I am still struggling trying to find the Joseph Pendarvis family's graves. They should be close to Bamberg, SC where the other families they intermarried with lived in the 1790's.

I sent the search request below to the archive and they found nothing. I know there is some emails on him as I have written a few. What am I doing wrong in my request?

For example, Ursula Pendarvis (oldest child? b. abt. 1780/1783) married Phillip Jennings. A number of Jennings are buried in Old Bethlehem Cemetery No. 1 and No. 2. neither Ursula nor Phillip are buried there. I hope to get Ursula's birth date from her head stone. From manuscripts in the Barnwell Library I have Elizabeth Pendarvis's birth date as 11 Oct 1781. She is said to be the fourth child but must be the second by these dates. I have been told the Barnwell manuscripts should not be relied on.

Joseph Pendarvis (1759 - c1791) is shown in the 1790 Census: with four children and 41 slaves. Presumably his fifth child had not been born when the census was made. I would think a man with 41 slaves would leave some tracks somewhere. Did Sherman get them all? Joseph's neighbors were listed in the Census in this order:

Mary Valentine, Rachel Shilling, Joshua Smith, Charles Smith, John
Peters, JOSEPH PENDARVIS, Ann Oneil, John Pendarvis, George Nixon, James Valentine, Sarah Brown. I would think their home, church and cemetery would be near these homes wherever they were.

Bob, (and all)

I have updated my "Orangeburgh Discussion Group" file at my web site to include my previous message regarding interactive searches. I clicked on rootsweb search engine and found 7 hits for pendarvis and joseph for 1998, 15 hits in 1997 and 0 hits in 1996. Also got 5 hits from usgenweb search engine. The new search engines makes the task much easier for those with web access. However, some only e-mail users must still request the search by e-mail.

PENDARVIS-GENERATION IV

Richard Pendarvis, commonly called "Tory Dick" was a South Carolina loyalist.

He lived on May River, in St Helena Parish, Granville (Now Beauford) County SC.

(Jim's note: a feud between Richard Pendarvis and Capt Doharty an aggressive leader of the revolutionist resulted in Capt Doharty being shot to death in his front yard in March 1779 and Capt Pendarvis being shot to death in his front yard in April 1781.)

The account of this recontre given in the Georgia Gazette, April 19, 1781 reads as follows:

"Last Friday, April 13, Capt Richard Pendarvis was shot dead within twenty yards of his house on May River, where one William Patterson was also barbarously murdered. The perpetrators consisted of a rebel officer and five men. the names of four of the men were Leacraft (prisoner on parole), Blackwood, Bettison, and Nathan Gamble, who had received and was under protection.

"The villains afterward went to the house and insulted Mrs Pendarvis with opprobrious language, and upon leaving took with them three horses and Capt Pendarvis's gun."

Col John Screven, great-grandson of Elizabeth Pendarvis in writing of Richard Pendarvis (who was elder half brother of said Elizabeth) remarked:

"I think, however, it is likely that gross injustice has been done his memory. If he was a tory and if he did shoot down a man (the uncle of Leacraft) who had repeatedly threatened his life, he died like a brave man."

Pendarvis - Schultz

Mr. Guy G. Pendarvis, of the USCG "Forward" and Miss Ina Mae Schultz were quietly married last Thursday night at the Lutheran parsonage, the Rev. Wm. Wedig officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. J.A. Pendarvis and Miss Pellie Pendarvis, brother and sister respectively, of the groom. The young couple will make their home in Pascagoula as long as Mr. Pendarvis' duties require his residence here.

Hi Pat,

← SMITH

Saw your info on the 'Alabama rootsweb Dec. 28 and thought I would respond. We've never corresponded, but I think we could do each other some good.

My father Francis Earl Smith was b. Nov. 21, 1901 in Escatawpa, MS. His father was Francis "Barney" Smith, also from Escatawpa, and his mother was Alice Delia Goff from Vancleave, MS. His grandfather was Elias Bonnell Smith who was married to Unity Hough Ferrill. Elias and Unity had 4 children: Elias Bolin, Florence Anhole, Francis Barnabus, and Unity Hough Smith. Elias Bolin Smith married Martha Jane Jones (after her 1st husband, Emanuel Lopez, Sr. died). Martha's parents were John W. Jones and Annie Elizabeth Kennedy. Mary Elizabeth was Martha's sister who married Joseph James Pendarvis, Jr.

Did you know this? I also have other information on the Smith Family.

What I would like to know is how many children did Joseph and Mary have? On my database I have eight, but then I read your email and you mentioned George Guy, and that would make nine. See if I have the children right so far: Minnie, Phillie, Annie, John, Constance, Clarice, Gladys, and Joseph Allen. I haven't any info on Minnie or Phillie. I neglected to source these two children, and I'm not sure where I got their names. I have Minnie living in Arcadia, LA, and Phillie in CT.

Write soon,
Francis Smith in Mobile, AL-----researching: Smith, Goff, Cochran, Tillman, Mader, Bolling, and many others.

I am still researching my g-g-grandparents:
(all records are from my and other family members records, Probate
Records of Alachua County, Florida, and Jackson County, MS Archives Department, Pascagoula, MS)

James ? Pendarvis>SC>GA>Alachua County, FL b?, d. abt 1866, married to Nancy Williams>Alachua County, FL b?, d 1872. Susan Pendarvis-Strobel (or Stroble) was amd. of Est, until 1880, then J. Exley (cousin to Pendarvis children, his mother Mary and Nancy were sisters) took over as Estate Amd. and the guardianship of James & Nancy's minor children, William Allen, George L., and Joseph James.

Some of the Pendarvis children married into the Button, Huggins, Strobel
families of Alachua County, FL.

Also, another one of their sons, my g-grandfather Joseph James Pendarvis
b.1866 FL died MS, who married M.E. "Molly" Jones in 1895, Jackson County, MS; her parents where John W. Jones (MS) and Ann Kennedy (Mobile County, (AL>MS>) of Jackson County, MS.

James Pendarvis and Lewellen Williams, and J. Exley (d. 1857 & was married to Mary Williams-[1]Blanton-[2]Exley, sister to Nancy), owned a store at that time era. All (and the store) resided in Alachua County, FL. There store was dissolved after Lewellen Williams died abt 1867 with Nancy Williams Pendarvis as Estate Amd.

Lewellen Williams also used "all" these other given names on his recorded records in Florida until 1867:
Llewelling/Lew/Lewellen/Lewallen/Lewelling and there was also a "Major L
Williams" in probate records also.

I have no info on who Lewellen's parents where.

Any help or direction would be great!

MRS. PENDARVIS TO OBSERVE 90th BIRTHDAY HERE

MRS. PENDARVIS

Mrs. Georgie Pendarvis will observe her ninetyeth birthday anniversary Friday and her daughter, Mrs. George Armstrong, has planned an open house to be held at her home on Lake Huntley Friday from 2 to 4. All friends are invited to stop by and visit Mrs. Pendarvis, Mrs. Armstrong said.

Mrs. Pendarvis and her husband moved to Lake Placid, which was then Lake Stearns, in 1922. At that time there was only a grocery store and the depot here, Mrs. Pendarvis said.

The First Baptist church was organized on the front porch of the Frank Lewis home, and among the charter members were Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Pendarvis and Mrs. Arthur Quinter. Mrs. Lewis was the first teacher of the T.F.L. Sunday school class and Mrs. Pendarvis also served as teacher. She was active in mission work all over Lake Placid.

Mrs. Pendarvis was very active and able to drive her own car until 1963, when she suffered a stroke. She was cared for by her daughter until she, too, became ill, and then went to the Sebring Boarding Home, where she now resides.

George Pendarvis, Lake Placid Area Pioneer Dies; Was 96

GEORGE PENDARVIS

By Albert Devane

One of Lake Placid's pioneers and its oldest resident, George Pendarvis, 96, passed away quietly at 5 a.m. Wednesday at his home here.

Mr. Pendarvis had been in failing health for some time and seriously ill for several weeks.

He had lived in Lake Placid for 35 years.

Born in Newnansville, Alachua County, Florida on December 26, 1863 — during the Civil War — he was the eighth child of nine children of James Joseph Pendarvis and Nancy Williams Pendarvis.

Both of his parents died when Mr. Pendarvis was a small child and he was raised by an elder brother.

He was first married to Susie Benedict, who died shortly after the birth of their only child, Roy. Later he was united in marriage with the former Georgia Connell Fletcher who survives.

Mr. Pendarvis first visited the sand hills of Lake Placid shortly after the turn of the century. He returned in the early 1920s and purchased the property of a former neighbor when they both lived in Sumpter county, Drew Towns. Mr. Towns had planted orange, lemon, and lime groves.

On this homestead Mr. Pendarvis helped produce the first "Tahiti" variety of limes in Florida.

Mr. Pendarvis was a member of the Woodmen of the World and of First Baptist Church of Lake Placid.

Surviving in addition to his widow are his son Roy, of Lake Placid, four grandchildren, B. C. (Bobby), Nell, Jerry, and Paul, a step-daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Armstrong, and 12 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at First Baptist Church of Lake Placid with the Rev. D. C. Spillman officiating. The Rev. Spillman was assisted by the Rev. O. E. Boals, pastor of Woodstock Baptist Church in Jacksonville, and the Rev. Kline Williams, pastor of First Baptist Church, Immokalee. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery. Stevenson's Funeral Home of Sebring had charge of arrangements.

WINNER ANNOUNCED

Earl Golem of Pine Ridge Park received an electric can opener and an electric knife sharpener which were given as prizes by Lake Placid Drug on Christmas Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Russell drove to Miami Tuesday, December 29, to visit Mrs. Henry M. Williams. Mr. Russell's sister, who is convalescing from a recent operation.

Roy Pendarvis Dies Saturday

Longtime resident of Lake Placid, Roy Pendarvis, aged 80 years, passed away Saturday at Highlands General Hospital after a long illness. He was a grandson of a Florida pioneer, and the son of one of Lake Placid's earliest settlers.

Roy Pendarvis

Mr. Pendarvis' grandfather, James Joseph Pendarvis, moved into Alachua County soon after Florida was purchased from Spain, settling in the Newmansville area. His father, George Pendarvis, first came to Lake Placid in 1905, and returned in 1925 buying the Charley Towns homestead which was located between Lake Huntley and Lake Saddlebags. The George Pendarvis family is among the founders of the First Baptist Church of Lake Placid.

Roy Pendarvis was born in Lake Penasoffkee, Florida, Florida, located in Alachua County. He helped operate a sawmill in Sumter County, and later moved to Jacksonville, where he worked as a barber, and later as the Night Mgr. of the city Garage in that city. Terminating his employment there in 1935, Mr. Pendarvis moved his family to Lake Placid at that time.

During World War II Mr. Pendarvis operated heavy equipment for the Brinson Construction Company, and was sent to the Brazilian city of Belen to build airfields. Returning to Lake Placid after the war he purchased the Clyatt McCauley home on Hillcrest Avenue in 1946. In 1972, Hillcrest Ave. was renamed Roy Pendarvis Road in his honor. Leaving the employ of Brinson Construction in 1955, Mr. Pendarvis worked variously for the Town of Lake Placid and Highlands County at the local landfill operations, continuing to work until he was 76 years old. During his later years he was a familiar sight around town, riding in his son Jerry's open jeep, and helping him with his lawn mowing service.

Mr. Pendarvis is survived by his wife Evelyn, three sons, a daughter, five grandchildren and two great grandchildren. His son Bobby Connell Pendarvis operated a wholesale nursery in Fort Pierce. Paul Pendarvis, another son, is employed by the David Block Company of Jacksonville. His youngest son, Jerry, is a member of the Lake Placid Police Department, a local businessman, and a former ambulance driver for Highlands County. Nel McKenzie, Roy Pendarvis' daughter, is a telephone operator who lives in Avon Park.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at First Baptist Church. Rev. Don Active, Miles, I. Bush, Devin Shacsenmaier, Horwer, M. Carter, W. Malcolm, E. Cooksey, chet Ed, Wines, a Interment Cemetery, eral Ho arrange

Lake Placid gets a new patrolman

The Town of Lake Placid has officially expanded its police department. Town Council voted Monday to hire Jerry Pendarvis of Lake Placid to serve on a part-time basis as a patrolman.

Pendarvis was sworn in at a brief ceremony in town office Tuesday afternoon. He joins Chief Russell Hartsfield and Ptl. Myles Miller on Lake Placid's two-man force.

"I think Jerry Pendarvis' qualifications are top-notch and we should hire him," Mayor J. D. Watson said.

Pendarvis, a life-long resident of Lake Placid, will be paid $3.13 per hour. He is currently taking a course at South Florida Junior College for certification as a police officer, and has received a temporary waiver of certification until he completes the course.

Pendarvis, 37, is employed by Emergency Medical Service as an EMT and will continue in that capacity. He will work for the police department during his days off.

The new patrolman is a graduate of Lake Placid High School and a veteran of the Vietnam War. He and his wife Tina have two children, Kenny and Scott. His wife is an English teacher at LPHS.
